The Hawai‘i Wood Guild extends a very special mahalo to Isaacs Art Center for providing this lovely, historic space for our exhibit and for their continued support. We are proud to share that 25% of the proceeds from works sold during our exhibit go to raise scholarship funds for students of Hawai‘i Preparatory Academy—a school recognized for its excellent arts education programs.

We thank Woodcraft of Honolulu, the Hawaii Forest Industry Association for their terrific donations for our awards.

Our Judges:

Meet the wonderful people who took their time to judge this year’s exhibit and determined the award winners.

- Lauren Faulkner, Owner, Fine Art Associates, Honolulu
- Matthew Kilgore, AIA, CEO of Koa Architects, Waimea
- Robert K. Masuda, Retired Y, Gov’t. & Community Leader

We also thank all the volunteers who made this exhibit possible! Countless hours go into bringing this event to the community and we couldn’t do it without the kindness and talents of our volunteers.

Have you voted for your favorite piece?

Each year we award the Peoples’ Choice Award to the woodworker who receives the most votes from our visitors. Please take a moment to vote on the paper provided and place it in the calabash near the door. We’ll post the results on our web site at the close of the exhibit. We’ve included some general questions as well—please answer as many as you can. Your feedback will help us grow.

26th Annual Hawai‘i Wood Guild Exhibit

Dedicated in loving memory of Dan DeLuz

(July 23, 1934- January 15, 2012)

The Hawai‘i Wood Guild dedicates this Exhibit in loving memory of our honorary member, Dan DeLuz—a man who taught many of us so much, openly shared everything he learned from his path of mastering his art, and inspired a generation of woodworkers. You could stop by his shop any time and generally find him turning, carving, or sanding. He’d always take a break to talk story and answer questions. His wisdom came from years of doing what he loved. Watching him turn was a joy—the ribbons of shavings piling up at his feet as he guided the gouge in a seemingly effortless way—the way only years of practice turning beautiful calabashes could create. Dan began woodturning long before it was “cool” and generously gave lessons to anyone interested in learning. Born and raised on this Island, he embodied the spirit of Aloha. His gentle spirit, kindness, and sharing will greatly be missed by our entire community.

Did you know the Hawai'i Wood Guild is featured in a book (and so are 14 of our currently exhibiting members)? Although the first edition of Contemporary Hawaii Woodworkers; the Wood, the Art, the Aloha has sold out, there are still some Collectors' Edition copies to be had. These 300 special books were lovingly shipped to four locations on three islands to be autographed by 35 of the featured woodworkers and both authors. Each is numbered and comes with a slip case. As a fundraiser for the Hawai'i Wood Guild, Collectors' Edition copies of this award-winning coffee table book are on sale for the duration of the Exhibit.

About Us

The Hawai'i Wood Guild is a nonprofit, volunteer driven, organization for woodworkers and wood enthusiasts on the Island of Hawai'i. Our mission is to promote awareness and appreciation for Hawai'i's talented woodworkers and the trees and woods they use to create with. Our livelihoods rely on our forests and our goal to bring awareness to good forest stewardship through our alliance with the Hawai'i Forest Industry Association (hawaiiiforest.org).

Our Annual Exhibit is the premiere event for fine woodworking on Hawai'i Island. The best works by the most talented woodworkers are displayed at our juried and judged exhibit and all the entries are available for purchase.

Membership meetings are held at various woodworkers studios three times a year to encourage professional development. Sharing tips and techniques always leads to inspiration. We encourage woodworkers, collectors, and foresters to talk story with one another.

Our volunteer Board of Directors:

President, Tiffany DeEtte Shafto

Vice President, Mats Fogelvik

Secretary, Doni Reiland

Treasurer, Marcus Castaing

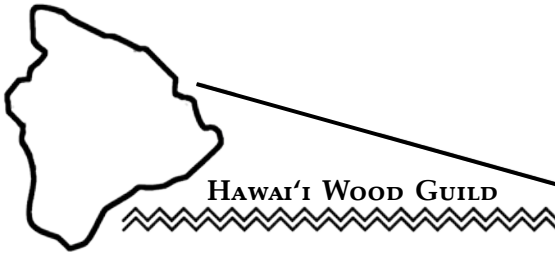

Director, Don Albrecht

Director, Cliff Johns

Meet the Woodworkers on Saturdays!

Take us up on the opportunity to talk story with our members by visiting the exhibit on Saturdays. Each week, a few different members will be here to answer your questions about the works, the wood, and the joy of creating here in Hawai'i.

Mahalo for attending our exhibit and supporting our local creative community.
